From Cambridge University Press : Anti-Cartel Enforcement Worldwide 3 Volume Hardback Set (Antitrust and Competition Law) before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Anti-Cartel Enforcement Worldwide 3 Volume Hardback Set (Antitrust and Competition Law):

This comprehensive multi-contributor collection includes details about every jurisdiction where a mechanism for anti-cartel regulation has been introduced. A concise account of each jurisdiction is provided, presented in a practical and clear manner with the aid of flowcharts, diagrams and tables. Anti-Cartel Enforcement Worldwide aims to provide the legal community, in particular law firms and policy-makers, with an important and authoritative source for information and reference, which will prove valuable when making decisions and delivering sound and accurate advice relating to cartel cases.

About the Author Maher M. Dabbah is a barrister of the Middle Temple and the Director of the Interdisciplinary Centre for Competition Law and Policy (ICC) at Queen Mary, University of London.
