Antitrust Dispute Resolution is an authoritative, insider s perspective on best practices for resolving antitrust disputes through negotiations and settlements. Featuring partners from some of the nation s leading firms, these experts guide the reader through the different aspects of an antitrust case and the key considerations to obtain the best resolution for a client. These top lawyers give tips on understanding the marketplace, assessing a client s financial liability, recognizing settlement opportunities, preparing for negotiations, and identifying and working with key players. From pursuing alternative dispute resolution when appropriate to getting the best settlement with respect to the client s future business practices, these authors describe the important factors inherent in an antitrust settlement and present advice on resolving disputes without entering into litigation. The different niches represented and the breadth of perspectives presented enable readers to get inside some of the great legal minds of today as these experience lawyers offer up their thoughts around the keys to navigating disputes in this ever-evolving area of law. Inside the Minds provides readers with proven business intelligence from C-Level executives (Chairman, CEO, CFO, CMO, Partner) from the world's most respected companies nationwide, rather than third-party accounts from unknown authors and analysts. Each chapter is comparable to an essay/thought leadership piece and is a future-oriented look at where an industry, profession, or topic is headed and the most important issues for the future. Through an exhaustive selection process, each author was hand-picked by the Inside the Minds editorial board to author a chapter for this book. Chapters Include: 1. J. Donald Cowan Jr., Partner and Lisa Frye Garrison, Partner, Smith Moore LLP - "Negotiating Settlements Within the Framework of Antitrust Laws" 2. R. Bruce Holcomb, Partner and Antitrust Practice Leader, Dickstein Shapiro LL
