From Brill - Nijhoff : Austrian Review of International and European Law, Volume 17 (2012) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Austrian Review of International and European Law, Volume 17 (2012):

The Austrian Review of International and European Law is an annual publication that provides a scholarly forum for the discussion of issues of international and European law, with emphasis on topics of special interest for Austria. Each volume of the Review includes general articles, current developments, and the comprehensive annual digest of Austrian practice in international law, encompassing judicial decisions, executive as well as parliamentary documents relating to international law. The concluding parts of the Review contain longer book reviews, shorter book notes and a selective bibliography on international investment law prepared by the library of the Peace Palace in The Hague. Volume 17 of the Series covers the year 2012.
