Stanton T. Mathews, Kevin Lancaster : California Causes of Action before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised California Causes of Action:

Over 125 pre-researched causes of action written by specialists in 19 separate legal fields. Draft better and quicker complaints, cross-complaints, answers or demurrers with up-to-date coverage of areas such as employment, intellectual property, negligence, contracts, real estate and much more. "Here is an extremely useful tool for practitioners engaging in various civil practice areas - concise and preresearched, it is a guide to over 90 causes of action, all in one desk top binder. The collected work of twenty-one litigation specialists and 100 practicing attorney advisors, California Causes of Action covers sixteen separate practice categories." - Excerpted from California Journal of Law. No longer will you have to sift through opinion after opinion to find one that recites all the elements of a cause of action. California Causes of Action delivers both the elements and the supporting decisions, plus affirmative defenses, related causes of action, remedies, and statutes of limitations. Many of the causes of action are supported by full-text sample complaints in print and via Digital Access. This useful resource will help you draft pleadings, conduct discovery, marshal evidence, prepare jury instructions, make and respond to motions, and prepare appellate briefs for over 125 causes of action in 19 practice categories. California Causes of Action helps you avoid the cost, hassle, and risk of a demurrer by providing clear explanations of each element and annotated case notes-the clear framework with help you draft nearly invincible pleadings Drafting an answer or a cross complaint is also a breeze. With the detailed affirmative defenses for each cause of action, you'll never second-guess the strength of your response again. Write
