Practitioner's Guide to Irish Law (Bloomsbury Professional):

This brand new Irish title is a highly usable guide to EU competition law, set in the context of international legal practice and with particular focus on the UK and Ireland. It includes extensive competition law questions, answers, and precedents. Also included are appendices reproducing a number of documents that are essential to the most common types of competition law issues, for example: the Commission's guidelines on vertical agreements and its guidelines on collaborations between competitors, as well as a small amount of essential primary legislation.

About the AuthorNathy Dunleavy is a practising barrister in Ireland. He has been called to the New York Bar, is qualified as a barrister in England, as well as a solicitor there. He is also a part-time tutor in Competition Law in Trinity College Dublin. Consultant Editor: Paul Sreenan SC
