Informative insider info on what it takes to be a copBy Judy CarteAt first I thought this book was going to be funny as I know the author is a very funny guy. But, this is a nuts and bolts information about how someone becomes a cop, what's required, and apparently it's nothing like Police Academy Part2, but a rigorous training program. Thanks Cliff for showing us the behind the scenes view of what it takes to become a cop from someone who has been there.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Excellent content for citizens to read.By GeorgeThis brief, factual book is informative and interesting. It contains information that the average citizen should now about the process of becoming a police officer. The author's comments and commentary regarding police work and the current climate towards police officers in general make for an interesting starting point for dialogue on the topic.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. A great book for everybody!By CustomerAfter reading this book I realized how much steps a future police officer must take in order to become a cop. I most definitely gained more respect, trust, and understanding. Thank you, Cliff, for sharing this with everybody what it takes to become a police officer and all the dangers of this profession!

Cliff Yates is a 35 year veteran of Law Enforcement, who gives you an insiders look, at how Cops are recruited, screened and trained. Where do Police Agencies find candidates ? What is the application process like ? How do agencies do background investigations on Police applicants ? What kind of medical and psychological tests do Police applicants go through? What is the Academy like? What is the difference between a Sheriff, and a Police Officer ? Cliff answers these questions and more. The media and Police critics would have you believe that Police agencies are full of racist cop cowboys. This book dispels all the anti Cop narrative we here nightly on the news. Now you will know the truth about our American Cop heroes who are protecting our American way of life. It should give you confidence in our American Police Officers.

About the AuthorCliff Yates retired from Law Enforcement after 35 years of service. Working five years in upstate NY, and 30 years with the L.A. Sheriff's Department. He also lived a double life for years, as a cop by day and a stand up comedian by night. Cliff now concentrates full time on his Acting,Comedy, and Writing career.
