US Senate : Department of Defense Appropriations Bill, 2013 before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Department of Defense Appropriations Bill, 2013:

This bill makes appropriations for the military functions of the Department of Defense for the period October 1, 2012, through September 30, 2013. Functional areas include the pay, allowances, and support of military personnel, operation and maintenance of the forces, procurement of equipment and systems, and research, development, test and evaluation. Appropriations for foreign military assistance, military construction, family housing, nuclear weapons programs, and civil defense are provided in other bills. HEARINGS The Appropriations Subcommittee on Defense began hearings on March 7, 2012, and concluded them on June 13, 2012, after nine separate sessions. The subcommittee heard testimony from representatives of the Department of Defense, other Federal agencies, representatives of organizations, and the public. In addition to these hearings, the subcommittee held four classified briefings with the regional Combatant Commanders and Commander of U.S. Special Operations Command.
